Jasih: Paranormal Sci-Fi Alien Romance (Alien Mates Book 2)

Synopsis

If he weren't there, I would be Alone and Dead 2.514 A.D. Earth has been long abandoned, and humans have colonized the far edges of the galaxy. Yaerus, the new home planet, is the center of knowledge and diplomatic influence in the Known Galaxy. Humanity has entered a new age of space growth, and a great part of that progress is owed to the Chroniclers. Eladia, a beautiful, courageous Chronicler, bound to solve the Great Mystery, lands on Primordial Earth as Silver, her artificial intelligence robot, has received some strange leads she has to follow. There, she will meet Jasih, and her life will change forever. Jasih, a handsome and genuine alpha alien who crashed on the planet known as Earth years ago. He has lost his memory, and though he is unaware of it, he seems to shift to a darker self in the least expected times. And when he does, adrenaline takes him over making him cruel and seriously dangerous for everyone, able to act based only on his survival instincts. When these two opposite personalities come face to face, they will both turn each other's life upside down. They will have to cooperate to solve the Great Mystery, and though none of them knows what they are looking for, they will put the puzzle together, piece by piece, sooner than they expect. However, there are those who have different plans, and they will try to keep Eladia and Jasih from completing their quest by all means available. Will Eladia and Jasih solve the Great Mystery after all, or will they die trying? Jasih is a full-length novel of approximately 130.000 words with a guaranteed happily ever after, no cheating and no cliffhangers! Expect steamy scenes, mysterious aliens, spaceflights, deadly planets and the love story between a curvy woman from Earth and a sensationally hot alpha male! Customer Reviews

Some spoilers will be given, reader beware! I liked the book, the world building was interesting and I think it could have been used much more as part of the story. Regarding the cover: This is a space opera, with interesting plot points, some hits and misses, that's why a nude torso seems a bit formulaic for me and it can scare future male readers. SPOILERS: The split personality explanation comes at chapter 51, be patient, go on the ride that is Jay's adventure. There is too much sex, I don't think it is needed AT ALL (Never thought I would go on the CLEAN bandwagon) it seems forced and out place. Will try one more book by Ms. Hunt.

I originally was not going to leave a review - What changed my mind? I wanted to voice or I guess ask what happened with Jasih? I honestly like this series - it is creative, with unique characters. though at times they can be a bit complicated. And Hunt's world building within this series is quite phenomenal so many planets and each one is vivid and different. Now -all this aside they are also normally better edited - that was not the case with Jasih - and that is why such a colorful complicated and creative plot and tone is lacking two of its five stars!

Another great story of love and romance with the characters exploding from the pages. So far I have read every single story and waiting for more. The characters come alive with you and completely enthralling. I highly recommend this series it will keep you completely entertained.

Exciting sci-fi alien romance with mystery and adventure. Interesting plot with very well describe characters. The end of the story was a amazing surprise. If you enjoy alien romances this is story for you.

3.5 stars. This book has an interesting story; unfortunately it is very long and confusing. It definitely does not end on a cliffhanger!The book starts off in one place and then goes backward in time to the real beginning. I don't know that this was necessary as it repeats the whole thing later in the timeline. Eladia is a Chronicler. She has come to Earth to look for a relic. Earth is no longer the home of humans, all the cities have been abandoned and there are dangerous things lurking in the dark. Eladia finds a space ship and a cryo pod containing a humanoid life form. Jasih, or Jay as Eladia calls him, has no idea why he is on Earth or why he has been asleep on over one hundred years. His ship is not flyable, so he agrees to join with Eladia and her robot, Silver in their search for the relic and transportation off the planet. They find another humanoid, apparently a new evolution of humans is already beginning to form on the planet. They name this one Zan and he also joins their group.When trouble strikes them Jay seems to turn into another man, one covered in armor and capable of protecting himself quite well. Eladia refers to this side of Jay as Dark Jay and he will play a large part in the book.I am not going to try to explain the book to you. I will let you read it for yourself as it is quite complicated. There were quite a few thing that I still don't understand!! received an ARC of this book from the author. My review is voluntary.

Jasih is a great alien romance story. The female lead, Eladia, is a basically a futuristic archaeologist who is in search of clue to what is called "The Great Mystery". Her search brought her to Earth, which has turned back into a primordial place and while searching for an artifact discovers the male lead, Jasih, in a cryo-pod. Things occur rather quickly from then on while she continues her search with her band of friends. Lots of drama and action and the story leaves you continually wondering if they will solve "The Great Mystery" and if all will end well. Don't worry, Eladia and Jasih get their HEA but be sure to read because this book keeps you guessing right up to the end!

This is the second book in the Alien Mates series. It is a fast-paced and standalone book that will keep you engaged and also keep you on the edge of your seat from all the plots going on in this story. There's action, adventure, drama, danger, suspense, twists/turns, mystery, secrets, enemies, fighting, survival, intrigue, anger, trust, lies, deceit, life-threatening situations, loyalty, betrayal, romance, passion/lust and love. Earth is no longer the home for humans, all the cities have become abandoned buildings that are overtaken by forests and primordial creatures. All the humans have gone to another planet to live. Eladia is a human Chronicler, or in other words an archeologist and has come to Earth looking for a Nusae relic from a past society that has been gone for hundreds of years. While search she comes across a crashed spaceship with a person/alien in a cryogenic unit. Jadih "Jay"/Jasih an alien that has been in a cryogenic unit for over a hundred years when his spaceship crashed on Earth. Has no memory and has no idea why he is on Earth to begin with. org even why he was asleep. Silver is Eladia's shape shifting robot and Zan is a humanoid boy that they found on Earth. Add into the mix masked members of an interplanetary organization, zombies, hidden planets, interplanetary travel, aliens who become trees, mysterious aliens, spacefights, and pirates and you have one action packed story. This is a must read and I can't wait to read the next book in this series. I voluntarily reviewed this advanced reader copy and this review is my own opinion.
