Customer Reviews

I don't recommend this book at all. Maps are not complete. They were very unhelpful. The restaurants recommended in St Petersburg were not at all how described.

A quality travel guide about the capitol of Russia!

Excellent guide to go around and also the history and culture of the country.

Fascinating description of behind the scenes relationship between Churchill and FDR

This guide is perfect for my upcoming trip. A good balance of things to see and do on all budgets.

Practical and easy to use.

I never travel without my Fodor's. Always a great guide.

Of all the Fodor's guides, which I love, this one was a little disappointing. I thought the book was disjointed on the kindle, and when I saw the paper version, it was the same! There was not enough detail about places like the Fortress of Sts. Peter and Paul, which has a very good military ceremony at noon which we just happened upon. Also there was not enough details about the Hermitage. Russia is so interesting - it deserves better coverage than provided here!
