Book by Albaugh, Dan

A milestone achievement for its time. This was the first attempt at a really comprehensive catalog for baseball cards beyond the most mainstream sets covered in the yearly "price guide" books from Sport Americana. Lots of obscure oddball, regional, food issue and minor league sets were represented for the first time. While no longer valid as a price guide, and dated as far as the coverage, it now serves as a good historical reference book for the hobby as it existed in late 1988.
