Synopsis

The vast majority of people who struggle with their weight have been programmed at a very early age to struggle with their weight. They've been programmed by their parents, comments, traumatic experiences, advertisements, and the belief that one needs to diet and exercise hard in order to lose weight. The solution is to change a person's automatic actions, or their instincts. The actions they take on a daily basis that they don't even think about. Most of what we do on a daily basis is done without conscious thought. Our internal dialogue is what compels us to check the mail, to get up and go somewhere, tells us when we're hungry, and tells us to exercise or not. Once our internal dialogue puts the thought in our mind, then we sometimes make the conscious choice to do so. If you ask someone who struggles with their weight to close their eyes, and tell you the first thought that comes to mind when you ask them about losing weight, chances are they'll say it's very difficult, or hopeless, or it will require a lot of exercise and a lot of dieting. The first thought and emotion that pops into their mind will be a negative one, and this is because of the negative programming in their minds. This is what the problem is. The solution is to change the way one thinks about themselves, food, and exercise. By recreating the pictures in their mind associated with food, their bodies, and exercise and associating them with a more pleasant experience, they'll instinctually perform the actions necessary to lose weight. By explaining to them that dieting actually causes obesity from a physical and psychological standpoint, they'll become inspired. When you tell someone who is overweight that they can eat what they want, and they don't have to spend hours in the gym, and prove it to them, this alone will cause a shift in their mentality. And this shift is the first step in undoing the negative programming. People who are naturally thin have automatic actions that support them being thin. The majority of their internal dialogue or thoughts are in alignment with being thin. And their internal dialogue is produced by their subconscious mind. If the majority of one's subconscious thoughts aren't congruent with losing weight, they'll continue to struggle with their weight. All the dieting and exercise in the world can't counteract the fact that their subconscious mind has been programmed against it. If they do lose weight by dieting and exercise, they'll unconsciously sabotage their efforts, gain it back and never know why. Willpower cannot override one's subconscious mind. If people knew this, they'd finally understand why they can't lose weight, or why they lose weight and always gain it back. By clearing the negative programming in one's subconscious mind, and conditioning it to lose weight and be healthy, one will take the automatic actions necessary to lose the weight. When both aspects of the mind are in harmony for losing weight, it will be effortless. And once something is effortless, it's done in the easiest and most efficient long term fashion. They'll automatically eat less, eat healthier, become more active, and they'll do so without even thinking about it. This is the only way for long term weight loss, and this is precisely what the book, Instinctive Weight Loss will do for its users.

Customer Reviews

Inspiring, Groundbreaking, and Life Changing! That sums up what I've experienced since I purchased this 5 months ago. Since I started listening to this, my life has changed dramatically. Not only have I lost over 75lbs, I look at myself in a completely new way. I no longer look at myself as this hopeless, fat, creature that'll never change. Now, I look at myself as a beautiful, loving, woman with confidence and optimism. This is the greatest thing that's ever happened to me. I know that I'll never have to diet again. I know that I'll never look at myself the way I used to. And for that, I'm forever grateful. --Sarah

This system has changed my life dramatically. I was literally one week away from making an appointment to see about weight loss surgery. I found this system online and ordered it. It arrived in 2 days and saved my life. I started listening to the audio and instantly knew this was the answer that I've been searching for my whole life. Damien gave me information that I've never heard before. He explained how dieting actually causes weight gain, and how it is damaging not only physically, but psychologically. He explains how to get rid of fears, how to overcome limiting beliefs, how to overcome emotional eating, how to look at exercise in a completely different way, how to think like a thin person, how to react to tons of different situations that caused me distress. It was like he read my mind as I was listening to him speak. So far, it's been 63 days, and I'm down 32lbs. The greatest thing is that I haven't counted one calorie and haven't even exercised once!

This product truly is a life saver, and I can't express enough how grateful I am for this amazing 7 hours of information. --Maria R.I LOST WEIGHT! I have lost over 20 pounds so far. I have not dieted. I have not exercised. I have not been hungry. The only effort that I've made is to press play on my CD player at bed time. This is no coincidence. What has changed? My attitudes toward food. Now, I eat when I'm hungry. I quit eating when I am full. I no longer feel the need to finish everything on my plate. I eat breakfast every day. I eat slowly and enjoy my food, but do not eat for pleasure. I now choose what to eat based on its nutritional value. I can now tell you with confidence and honesty that "I can eat what I want, and I won't gain weight" For the record, I have not yet reached my goal. I still have a long way to go, but the weight is still coming off at 1-2 pounds per week during the holiday season. This is not a diet. DIETS DO NOT WORK. THIS DOES! Think about it. If diets worked, we would diet, lose weight, and never diet again. If that was how it has worked, I wouldn't be writing this and you wouldn't be reading it. I highly recommend this weight loss system. Damien Young, the author, narrator, hypnotist, has done a great service by producing these CDs. I bought this in 2009, and it is a big time time commitment. So I would start it and stop it and start all over again. I would notice a change, but then wouldn't stick with it. I recently started again and really just committed to the amount of time it would take. Once I start listening, I pretty much pass out (which is fine because you are still getting the information) even during the conscious listening parts. I enjoy walking or cleaning while listening to the conscious parts as well (you listen to one conscious part every three days), I even break it up sometimes and listen to 10 minutes here or there. I have to say, this really, really, really works. It has changed all of my habits and a lot of the "hunger" has gone away. I have been really consistent with it and it makes me feel really great. It relaxes me and keeps me on track with very little effort. I find I don't mind the time anymore and it is totally worth it. Total thumbs up!!!

This is one of the best investments I have ever made--and without a doubt, the best one I have ever made in my pursuit of a healthy body and a lower weight! I have been listening to the series of CD's for about 3-4 weeks and not only have I lost two pounds every week and lowered my body fat percentage, but I have seen tremendous changes in other areas of my life as well---improved attitude, positive mental outlook, less stress, improved confidence, greater self esteem and more smiles...and as the program indicates, it is practically effortless. My single regret is that the marketing line for the book uses another of those "Lose 30 lbs in 60 days" lines which tends to put it in the ranks with gimmicky products that draw people in with unrealistic promises of results. I am finding that this program actually DOES produce results but consumers may pass it by as another empty promise. It is NOT!!! While the use of this program to achieve results does not require a lot of physical effort or deprivation, it does take effort--or a return investment--as well. And what you have to give is your time---time to listen to the series of CD's, follow the suggestions, and do the few short exercises it recommends (not the jumping jack, touch your toes variety, but writing down your thoughts on the current topic, or taking a minute sometime each day to review your accomplishments and give yourself a pat on the back for the changes you have made and the new behaviors you are adopting--effortlessly and healthfully!)I believe that the mental and behavioral changes that the program initiates are indeed a means of making this the final weight loss (health achieving)program that I will ever have to use. I am looking forward to my continued success and to enjoying all the healthful benefits that are already underway. I can see my new body at the end of the tunnel. I believe it...and I will achieve it!

Wish I could say I used it consistently enough to vouch for it. But that's user error, it's a 5 star product for sure.

I know there is controversy surrounding hypnosis for weight loss. I bought this system a couple of years ago and lost 20 pounds at the time. It was not effortless. You have to really listen to the CD's and practice what you're learning. I have slowly allowed the weight to creep back on so am back again to listening every night. I can tell by the way my clothes fit that I have lost a bit. Not sure how much because in Phase One he tells you to put your scale away. This last bit is great advise for anyone--look at yourself in the mirror and pay attention to how your clothes fit. My advise is try it and practice what you learn. We spend so much money and time on gimmicks that usually fail. This is a program that works from the inside out! Train your brain for weight loss!

I'm still just working with the system. I've gotten through all the phases only once so far in a relatively short period of time, but I've already seen results in my confidence, weight, behavior, and attitude towards food. I almost can't believe it! I never realized how many times I would eat "just because" when I wasn't really physically hungry. This has really opened my eyes to what physically hungry really is. It also has taken away my anxiety with food. I finally realize when I'm full and I don't just eat it because it's in front of me or because it's a time when I used to normally eat (i.e. TV time). It's been so easy. This is worth every penny. I HIGHLY recommend this system if you TRULY want to finally get healthy, feel better, and as a result work towards a healthy weight.
