Customer Reviews

I bought this for a hiking holiday in the Jungfrau region. Perhaps I just didn't buy the right guide for my needs, but I would have liked fewer things like restaurant reviews (we have the internet now, thanks) and more practical information. We brought it with us, and we shouldn't have, it just sat in the suitcase.

Covers everything in both the big cities and small towns across the whole country. Recommended restaurants and attractions were described accurately and worth your time.

Decent. Not super in-depth since it covers the entire country (which I understood when buying), but has enough info in every region to get you started. The best of the guide book types available. Info is easy to understand and spot on the go (unlike some of those more novel-like guides that are a pain to actually use).

Good for general information but weak on specifics (hotels/bars/restaurants).

Lonely Planets are always worth it

Made our trip so much more enjoyable. Great recommendations!!

None

Great book for getting tips on all of Switzerland.
