After having used our original copy of this exact map to the point where it needed replacing, I found that had an outstanding price for it and snatched it up! The various maps of Paris, London and separately each city's transit - Metro in Paris and the Tube in London - were helpful in many areas where newer construction had changed certain locations. The design of the maps are made to fold into much smaller sized units that can be placed in a safe location as you are walking or riding. They are plastic so they're water-proof, most dirt or markings can be wiped off easily and as mentioned they are both updated to current date's adjustments and fold for easy use (and easy to hide so as not to appear to be a tourist!) you will not regret buying any of this company's maps for any location, separate transit specific maps and any of their other products. (They're also good to use as a memento of any trip! - I use mine for a book mark and love the memories attached to it!)

The best map to have while in Paris, this made navigating the metro system and the city in general very easy. All of the major tourist landmarks are listed so it is easy to find the closest stop. Durable material, I probably took this in and out of my pocket and unfolded 10 times a day for a week and there was no significant wear on the folds or corners. The size is great it easily fit in my pants pocket without feeling like it took up unnecessary space.

Gives you an good idea of how it works and where to go. I recommend to buy a 10 tickets package for 14.40 euros in the airport CDG when you arrive there is a tourism booth after the escalator. I recommend also to buy the 3,4,5,6 days Museum pass there too. In the crowded areas I felt safe, just be aware that there could be pickpockets around. Always protect your passport and your money and cards, never in the back pockets.

If you want to forget about buying this and buying the street map, do so because this is a part of the "Paris Street Map" This company makes awesome products (maps) This particular item fold up to be tiny. Streetwise Maps Rocks!

I used this map to check Metro routes to the various tourist sights I wanted to see and verify that our hotel choice was a good one. Once we got to Paris, I did not use it because the Metro system gives out better maps for free.

This is the best thing I purchased for our trip to Paris!!! Loved that it was laminated so we could write on it with a marker and wipe it clean PLUS it didn't fall apart like some maps do. Highly recommend this for your trip abroad. Maps are plentiful everywhere but we really loved this one.

We used this little map quite often on our recent trip to France. It easily fit in our pockets and we were able to pull it out in a pinch on the subway. We also used a bigger map to find streets and destinations but this was easier to use in public areas.

The map is great - but for some reason, the seller placed a huge sticker on the back 1/3 of the small map - asking for "good feedback". 1. The sticker did not come off cleanly - had to scrape pieces of it off. 2. It left a very sticky residue all over the back of the map - which is made for folding up and putting in a wallet. Fold it one way, it would not unfold without a lot of careful pulling, or fold it the other way and the map stuck to my wallet. Took several treatments with window cleaner to get it to a usable state. I can't think of any product I would want a large sticker attached to - but a relatively fragile laminated paper map?
