Arthur Babysits (Arthur Adventure Series)

Synopsis

When Arthur babysits the Tibble twins, he finds out that it isn't quite the same as babysitting his little sister. As soon as their grandmother is gone, the boys run wild. Arthur suddenly understands why his friends call them the "terrible Tibble twins." How will he ever get them to settle down? Join Arthur on a babysitting adventure in this newly designed Kindle edition.

Customer Reviews

A cute book. It's so strange to see the Tibbles as people, not animals, since they are animals in the series.

Who doesn't love Arthur? A great story about responsibility and the power of storytelling. It certainly engaged my kids. And you know it's a good book when they ask you to read it again...and again!

Arthur babysits two undisciplined brats, all the while being completely incompetent while D.W. pesters him on the phone with advice. I will admit that I like the artwork (although the sweet shop looks like its located in a very grungy, run-down area. Was that intentional?) The attention to detailed illustrations was a nice touch, but the story is irritating enough to merit one star.

marc brown does not disappoint. arthur has to babysit the tibble twins and dw is full of advice. now to see if arthur can handle double trouble.

We have enjoyed Arthur since my boys were little and now I read them to my daughter. A great family character

A cute kids book, my daughter enjoyed it. I would recommend for small kids. Good like the other Arthur stories.

The combination of toy guns and bratty behavior really dates this one. There are much better Arthur books. Pass on this one.
