Customer Reviews

This book offers a fairly good rundown of a particular set of weapons from the Nationalist and P.R.C armies. Unfortunately none of the pieces discussed in this book receive the attention that even a moderately skilled expert in sword analysis could deliver. Their design philosophy, evolution, and use receive little attention. The martial arts, however limited, that use them receive almost no attention. I would rate it lower, but it is, unfortunately, very difficult to find better works.
