Criminal Procedure: From First Contact to Appeal, 2/E John L. Worrall, "California State University, San Bernardino" ISBN: 0205493106 This text is a comprehensive introduction to criminal procedure, from the point where individuals first come into contact with the police, all the way through to appeal. For the second edition, this text is updated through the 2005-2006 Supreme Court terms, which will assist students and instructors in identifying and learning the most recent Supreme Court decisions in the area of criminal procedure. Reviewer Praise Reviewers are praising Worrall's "Criminal Procedure" [remove underline; italics only] as an exciting text both for themselves and their students. "The book does an excellent job of covering the material," writes one reviewer. "It covers areas rarely covered in a typical procedure text such as issues of mental competency. In addition, it answers the questions that professors consistently get from their students." Another reviewer calls the Worrall text "an incredible improvement over [other criminal procedure texts]."

John L. Worrall is Professor of Criminology and Program Head at the University of Texas at Dallas. He has published articles and book chapters on a wide range of topics ranging from legal issues in policing to crime measurement. He is also the author of several books, including Crime Control in America: What Works? (3rd ed., Pearson, forthcoming) and Criminal Procedure: From First Contact to Appeal (5th ed., Pearson, forthcoming), coauthor, with Larry Siegel, of Introduction to Criminal Justice (14th ed., Cengage, 2014) and Essentials of Criminal Justice (9th ed., Cengage, forthcoming), and co-editor of The Changing Role of the American Prosecutor (SUNY, 2009). He currently serves as editor of the journal Police Quarterly.
