Customer Reviews

Jean-Claude Arrgon was born and educated in France. He has taught French at all levels from beginners to undergraduates.

Not impressed. Considerably less useful than it appeared to be

This is a good product. I like this company better then rosetta Stone. I feel like I actually am learning the language. I think more people should use this product than others that are out there.

I found it very useful and entertaining!. I would repeatedly read it at bedtime, and listen to the conversations while driving.

This was for my wife to "brush up" on French before a trip and she basically didn't listen to it, so it's not really ratable by me.
