Synopsis

A story a day! Who does that? Writers who love to write. Writers who love to make money writing. That's who. Those two things are not mutually exclusive. This erotically-themed prompt book was compiled with the erotica writer in mind. A celebration for a Merry Month of Mast- well, read the Look Inside for more details. It's designed to encourage the erotica writer to set up a habit to write every day, to make the muse perform on demand, all to help service the pursuit of making money doing what the writer loves to do. Write. Or write erotica! Each day for 31 days has its own, unique set of prompts. Set your timer for fifteen or twenty-five minutes, and and explore wherever the prompt takes you. Use it to inspire erotic musings and kickstart them into full-blown stories or smaller, sexy scenes in a larger body of work. Much like taking your vitamins, set up the habit of writing every day, getting yourself in the erotica writing mindset to see the kinds of productivity to really launch an erotica writing career.

Customer Reviews

I enjoy prompt books and generally find them useful, and this is no exception. I'd have preferred more specific in-depth prompts, and had to do some brain-stretching to put the pieces together in a few scenarios, but I came away with several really good ideas for story scenes.

I didn't use the book as advised. It inspired me to buckle down and get organized. I made a list of words I'd never used or didn't know from the daily words. Created a list of locations, occupations, and even kinks. So I kinda created my own references for later. Thanks for inspiration.
