Perfume Bottles For Purse And Dresser: From Czechoslovakia, 1920s-1930s (Schiffer Books)

Synopsis

Beautiful glass scent bottles made in Czechoslovakia during the 1920s and '30s were produced to please a variety of tastes, decors, and pocketbooks. Today, these tiny artistic treasures possess an Old World charm that endears them to collectors. This book combines over 500 gorgeous, full color photographs with period catalog images to provide a comprehensive study of the many styles and shapes of Czech perfume bottles. Featured are "dangle" bottles, cut glass bottles, filigree caged bottles, hinged bottles, micro bottles, intaglio designs, figurals, multiple sets, atomizers, and more. Includes a review of cap styles, valuable information regarding copies and reproductions, collector tips, and current values. Experienced and new bottle collectors will find this book delightful and intriguing.

Verna Kocken is a dedicated scholar and collector of Czechoslovakian perfume bottles who belongs to the International Perfume Bottle Association. She lives in southern Oregon.

This is a beautiful book full of very "smart" background and history. The collection, as illustrated, is quite special and the author is quite well informed. I am delighted with this book.

Has lots of photos - but wished it had more. Lots of info. and is well rounded on different types of bottles. I personally collect the Czech perfume bottle and wanted to see more of them.

Wonderful book great for the serious collector who is into Czech perfume bottles, nice large photos for identification, well worth getting.

Superb reference from Koken; very pertinent info.

Great.

Thanks.

Wonderful just what I wanted to expand my knowledge now that I am a member of IPBA. Colour plate are beautiful and so much information.

This is absolutely the BEST book available on Czech Perfume Bottles. The variety shown is astonishing and the designs are beautiful. Color photos show bottles and details. Good research and historic information. I found more than I expected and am delighted with my purchase!!!
