Special Places To Stay: India & Sri Lanka

Synopsis

Our popular book about India has been expanded to include Sri Lanka. This trusted guide is essential reading for the independent traveller interested in culture, style and people. These special places to stay include colonial hill stations, safari camps and sprawling palaces. From $\pounds 10$ to $\pounds 210$ a night, this is a remarkable collection of places that will transform travel in India and Sri Lanka. The variety of places is rich and astonishing. You can stay in an old Portuguese church and dine on the roof, explore an organic farm and its spice garden, or live on the edge of the desert.

Customer Reviews

Kristina regards India as her second home and has an in depth knowledge of this diverse country. She is passionate about Indian culture, history, philosophy, environment and food.

Living in India, we are always on the look-out for pleasant places to stay for our long week-ends. Sawday is doing a good job with finding hidden gems. Alas, quite a few of them are on the pricy side, but I guess that is the nature of the game...

I just love this book. You can find every type of accommodation imaginable in India from hotels, hostels and rooms to exotic tents, palaces and forts. This book helps in practical terms with detailed descriptions and full colour pics. I am hoping to go to India later this year and this book has given me lots of options to consider. Great :-)
