Customer Reviews

I went trekking with the aid of this book and was amazed how well the authors had done their research. I trekked with a woman who had met both Ben and Isobel, a mother and son team, when they were going back up Nanga Parbat in 1996. It was good to know they still had their feet on the trails. The woman I trekked with said her porters had told them that the Shaws were the only westerners who had such a great wealth of experience and knowledge.

Isobel Shaw's guide is superb. It begins with excellent general info re trekking and then provides a high level of detail regarding the many amazing treks which one can do in Northern Pakistan. Highly recommended
