Customer Reviews

Excellent book for understanding Contracts Law. It briefly presents the most famous cases that are generally taught in all law schools and it provides excellent arguments for both sides. Therefore, a student can learn to argue for both sides. It is the book that every student needs the last week before exam. Personally, I read "Principles of Contracts Law" by Robert Hillman before trying Chirelstein and Chirelstein is much better

Super helpful Contracts review. By far the best supplementary reading I've found on any 1L subjects. Recommended.

Even though this book is small, it's got great detailed explanations. It's not gonna work as your only supplement however.

Kinda of too wordy and defeats the purpose of a supplement.

A must have for contracts! I read this twice cover to cover and it was the best understanding of Contracts.

I love it!!

5 stars

If you want to learn contracts in two days. This is the book to do it with
