Customer Reviews

"In terms of comprehensiveness of coverage, the very accessible format, and the enthusiastic tone, this series remains one of the best on the market." Booklist "Fodor's super-informative guidebooks are known for accuracy and attention to detail." The Sacramento Bee "The Fodor's guides are notable for their ratings of sights, restaurants, shops, accommodations and attractions." Chicago Tribune "The great detail, infectious spirit, and attractive format are distinguishing traits of these guides, which are entries in one of the top series in the business." Booklist "Fodor's can help you plan the perfect adventure" The Arizona Republic "Always thoughtfully written and easily readable, Fodor's travel guides have become a must-have when traveling to unfamiliar destinations" Mid South Magazine "Widely recognized as the gold standard of mainstream travel" Honolulu Advertiser

Each Fodor's Travel Guide is researched and written by resident experts.

It has its good points but overall the bulk of the book is devoted to where to stay and where to eat with less information on what to see and do in the state. Tripadvisor and yelp are more useful for food and lodging and the guide books should be written to provide information on where to go, best times, tips for travelers, and possible problems one may encounter, and this is where Fodor's Utah fall short. The Moon book on Utah is much better.

We used Fodors as a companion with 50 Best Short Hikes in Utah for a three week trip hiking the national parks and visiting the state. Although the book was extremely helpful with respect to history and locations and the book turned out to be an excellent, couldn't live without guide, be careful of the restaurant and some of the hotel information. We disagreed often with several of the authors' reviews and towards the end of the trip, felt not only misled but really angry because the guide had sent us there. After a day of hiking, most people are really hungry and looking for great eats..in this case, Fodors DID NOT DELIVER..We finally stopped using it and asked locals to rate.. FODORS UTAH needs a serious upgrade on the restaurant tip and should consider hiring new contributors for this important piece since from our research and experience, food is becoming big business in UTAH with foodies like us considering the state as a soon to become destination.

Ok

We purchased this book while planning a trip to Utah. However, it didn't offer anything more than we got through AAA or a bit less than was available from the national parks' internet site.

I have found Fodor books very helpful for trip planning. I like being able to see what cities/towns along the route have as points of interest. Many helpful hints. I will take it with me to refer to along the way.

kept me on track as we traveled.

This is a great help for traveling the Utah national parks, especially when you need alternatives to the more well known choices. It is also an interesting read.
