Had this on my wishlist for awhile. Got it for Christmas. I'm honestly really impressed with the detail put into this. It's not just some random pagan related imagery. I love that it has a section for herbs and crystals and each zodiac. It's hard to explain how happy I am with this. I posted pics to help.

This is a very pretty coloring book. I love the images contained within, and there are plenty of pages to color. My biggest complaints with it, and reason for the four stars is because there are NO perforated edges to tear the pages out to make them easier to color or preserve in slip covers and use in a binder for a BOS like I intended to do with these. So I'm going to have to work on it some to make it work for my needs. Also, the paper is thin in quality, so I would use color pencils or a light hand and minimal leakage ink marker when coloring.

I was disappointed by the artwork. I also do not like that the pages can not easily be torn out. Although it had a variety of items in the book - I felt that some things were missing. Maybe it would have been better to add more items for different sections and create more books. And if the pages did tear out then a person could fill up a binder.

This is such a great way to relax and de-stress! I love it! It helps with my anxiety and depression, but still makes me feel connected to my magic!

Great quality, I just wish the pages were perforated so they can be removed. I have torn a few pages trying to remove them. I understand the author didn't want them to be removed as to not allow people to make many illegal copies of her work, but I don't want to keep them in the book after colouring.

Absolutely adore this! My husband and I were just Handfasting renewing our vows and decided this would be our joint BOS.... I have been practicing for many years, he is just beginning so we took great joy in agreeing that we will journey through this together!

Beautiful. I love it. I had read in the reviews that the pages do not tear out easily, so I simply broke the binding. That way I could cut the pages in protective sleeves in a binder.

I'm going to need a HUGE book of crayons. Going to get to express myself.
