Customer Reviews

If the logo is the face of a company, its stationery might be its makeup. Choosing the most suitable color, typography, or dimensions to represent the company and to enhance that face contributes to conveying the organization's essential values, philosophy, and concept. Designing your Identity brings together the freshest and most creative stationery materials produced by designers from all over the world. The projects featured range from business cards and letterheads to CD packaging, memoranda, and notepads. This book shows that a successful corporate identity is constructed primarily in the details, and it will undoubtedly help entrepreneurs to make a statement when starting a new business venture or to stand out in a highly competitive environment.
