The mother of two small daughters, Yuki Araki has written several books on making clothes for younger girls. Favorites among sewing bloggers and DIY aficionados, her books and patterns focus on pieces that are pretty yet basic. Her online shop "Kanon" features original fabric designs as well as patterns for her original women's and children's clothing.

Love these styles for "little ones" Simple and fast to sew. Lots of unique detail.

Okay book

I haven't been able to make anything yet, but I am certainly looking forward to it! The styles are really cute, and I don't think I will have any problems with the patterns.

Nice designs and simple to make

nice book

This book is good, but not exceptional . 22 patterns is a tall claim. 22 outfits is more like it. Many of the designs are essentially the same pattern ; there are about 6 or 7 actual individual patterns provided. This is not to detract from the effort made by the author; it's a good book in its genre, but Girls Style Book is better . It has more individual patterns .
