Customer Reviews

"I highly recommed the My First Communion Bible to any parish. The color images beautifully bring the scriptures to life and make children want to delve into this very special book." --Darick Bloom, DRE St. Joseph the Worker, Mankato, MN
"At the reception following First Communion, the children received their Bibles. It was tough to tell who was the most excited, the kids or the parents! The Bible is just beautiful, inside and out. I even heard parents reading the letter in the front from Fr. Groeschel to their child. So touching!" --Margaret Brown, DRE Saints Peter and Paul, Bradenton, FL

This is a lovely book for presentation. However, it is very very few pages long. The one I received was also a bit scuffed.

Easy to read with my son, Padded cover feels like leather which makes it even more special.

Quite nice. Gave as a gift so don't know how the child took to it, but it has a nice appearance and a place to write child's name and "given by." Did not read the whole thing, but graphics and bible stories look nice.

I liked the first communion bible, It has nice colorful pictures and stories.

My nephew and his parents really appreciated this gift for his First Holy Communion. The extra pages relating to the sacrament are beautifully written.

The pictures and illustrations were very well done. Very well written so children can understand what they are reading. It was my grandson's 1st Communion but the other grandchildren wanted one also. I will know what to get them for their 1st Communion.

Very nice for grandson's first communion. He is 8 years old and I think it is very well written and illustrated for his age.

Good child's bible but sent it back. Item was damaged
